Accepted Payment Methods

Amazon.com accepts various payment options, including credit, debit, and gift cards. We also accept FSA, HSA, EBT cards and OTC Benefits cards.

The following payment methods are available for use:

- Visa (Prime Visa and Amazon Visa)
- Amazon Store Card
- Amazon Secured Card
- MasterCard/EuroCard
- Discover Network
- American Express
- Checking Account
- Visa, Mastercard, or American Express prepaid credit or gift cards
- EBT Cash
- OTC Benefits card (we accept OTC Network benefits card only)

You can add a new payment card or change your existing payment details, without having to place an order, in your Amazon Wallet.

You can also use Amazon Gift Cards to pay for your order.

Note:

- You can split payment between one of the accepted credit or debit cards and an Amazon.com Gift Card. You can't split payment among multiple credit or debit cards.
- We accept Flexible Spending Accounts (FSA), Health Savings Accounts (HSA) (U.S. billing addresses only) for the purchase of FSA or HSA eligible items.
- Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) cards are accepted as payment methods on eligible items. For more information about paying with an EBT card, go to Pay with EBT
- OTC Benefits Cards are accepted as payment methods on eligible items. A default payment method must be added to your order to complete the OTC Benefits card orders. If your order contains ineligible items or fees that aren't covered by the OTC benefits card, the default payment method will be charged to cover the ineligible items or fees. For more information, visit https://health.amazon.com/OTCBenefits.
- Card Verification value (CVV) is mandatory for all Amazon Store Card transactions. If you don't have access to the physical card, request a new card, after reporting it as Lost/stolen)
